Has anyone found a good mortgage company online in ohio?

Also, is it safe to do business with online lenders? I have been eyeballing a website in Ohio that has programs for people with bad credit (<http://www.clevelandohiomortgage.com>) and have pondered the thought of calling them to do business with my refinance on the home mortgage loan. Should I try to do this loan online or should I just call someone local that I can go to the office? Let me know your experiences with online lenders please. Thanks you.

www.restructureyourmortgage.com lends in Ohio. Best of luck.
